LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. Col. Ben M. Ashby has returned from a delightful visit at her old home in the east.

Thursday Don C. Franklin departed for Prescott on private business, expecting to be absent from the city a week.

Mrs. Chas. Gildey and two small children are here from California. Judge Gildey is reported as being quite ill in California.

Our very good friend Captain Milan, of Boer war fame, is back from a successful hunt for big game in the Altar country, Sonora.

Wednesday evening Dr. Joseph McConnell, returned from the Cerro de Plata mines, in Sonora, where he had been on professional business.

J. E. Bentley, treasurer and director of the La Cobia Mining Company, was a business visitor in the city several days this week from camp.

Mark Smith, the printer, who for a number of years was connected with THE BORDER VIDETTE job office, was here Monday and Tuesday from Cananea.

C. L. Fowler of the Fowler Transfer Company, accompanied by Al Bush, the forepart of the week motored to Cananea, where he went on private business.

Geo. M. Ryall, the New York promoter, is back from the south, and for several days has been a guest of President Bracey Curtis of The First National Bank of Nogales.

WOOD FOR SALE—Well seasoned oak wood, cut into stove-lengths and delivered to any part of the city, for $6.00 per cord, or $5 per cord, not cut. Address, Charley Mapes, Nogales, Arizona. adv.

George Januel, the expert German barber, on Morley Ave., in Brickwood building, guarantees his work, and respectfully invites you to give him a trial. Everything neat and clean. Hair Cutting a specialty. adv.

Fred. Carruthers, superintendent of the United States Graphite Company, the valuable properties of which are at La Lapi, near San Marcial, Sonora, was a visitor in the city several days ago from the mines.

Mr. L. L. Lindsay, the Los Angeles capitalist, who a number of years ago resided here with his family, has been a visitor in Nogales several days, a guest of his friend and business associate, Mr. Bracey Curtis, president of The First National Bank of Nogales.

William Roath, the stockraiser of Canille, whose friends are urging to make the race for supervisor on the Democratic ticket this fall, was a guest at the Montezuma hotel last Thursday, from his ranch. Bill's friends say he's the man for the place.

Judge Charles Blenman, one of the best known most successful attorneys-at-law in the state, is a guest at the Montezuma hotel, having arrived yesterday from Tucson, where he has resided many years. Judge Blenman is here on legal business in the Superior Court.

Last evening E. B. Holt, president and manager of the Cerro de Plata Mining company, arrived from Cerro de Plata, bringing with him a big consignment of silver bullion, the second during the past thirty days. Mr. Holt was accompanied by Mr. Henry Greenwell, the well known promoter, who spent a couple of days at the best silver camp in Sonora, where everybody is prosperous and happy. Naturally Mr. Greenwell was delighted with his visit, and is more than well pleased with the great silver producer and the able manner in which the property is being managed. The work of installing the new machinery is progressing nicely, and the work of developing new ore reserves continues night and day, with results most satisfactory to the company.

Good auto service at all hours of the day or night, to points in Mexico or elsewhere. Price right. See Frank Krupp. adv.

Mr. L. R. Hornstein of Yokohama, accompanied by a number of Japanese capitalists, arrived in the city yesterday from Los Angeles, and this morning departed for Sonora and Sinaloa, Mexico, where they go to look at an immense tract of land with a view of purchasing same.

Thursday George P. Jones, one of Uncle Sam's oldest best known customs inspectors, was able to be around again, after having been laid up a month at the Sisters' Hospital in this city. Although still a little weak, George is feeling greatly improved and hopes soon to fully recover.

The following deputy income tax collectors were last Wednesday appointed for the Arizona-New Mexico district, by the President: Owen Murphy of Tombstone, A. L. Loomis of Santa Fe, A. T. Cornish of Flagstaff, John L. Zimmerman of Las Vegas, Walter Brawner was appointed inspector.

John Higginbotham, the Carbo capitalist, spent a couple of days here this week on his way from El Paso to Hermosillo, making the cross-country trip in a handsome new auto purchased in El Paso. He was accompanied by his friend, a Mr. Thomson, the Scotch gentleman who took the "P out of Thompson."

Yesterday morning at 2:30, Mrs. Carmen P. de Aguirre, mother of Mr. Juan Aguirre, passed away at the family residence in Nogales, Sonora, at the advanced age of eighty-one years. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon, interment being in the Nogales, Sonora cemetery. Deceased was an old highly respected citizen of Nogales.

L. B. Fleischer, representing A. Steinfeld & Co., the merchant princes of Arizona, is a visitor in the city today transacting business for his firm. Mr. Fleischer is a brother of Lieutenant Richard Fleischer, of the firm of R. Fleischer & Co., haberdashers Both L. B. and his brother are well known in this section where they engaged in business many years.

N. A. McDonald, the well known successful Harshaw mining man, was a business visitor in the city Thursday. Mr. McDonald and his estimable family have for many years made their home at Harshaw where Mr. McDonald has valuable mining property. He is the father of Mr. John McDonald, the young mining man who is well known in Nogales.

Mr. Emil Czuczka, of Chicago and New York, an expert cutter and fitter of clothes for men, has been a very busy man this week taking measures for a number of our best dressers. Emil has an up-to-the-minute line of patterns well known reliable eastern firms to select from, and if you will step into R. Fleischer & Company's store you cannot help but see something that will please you.

Jack King, who with his sons William and John, and Mr. R. Stevenson, is working a group of mines in Sonora, near Minas Prietas, has been here several days this week purchasing a lot of mine and camp supplies from Roy & Titcomb, Inc. Mr. King stated that up to date his camp has not been molested by "bronco" Yaqui Indians, while he and the boys are watching them, he feels safe.

Hon. E. V. Anaya, constitutional governor of Lower California, is a visitor in the city from Tucson. Recently in Tucson, the complaint against Governor Anaya, charging him with a violation of the neutrality laws, in connection with the famous aeroplane case, was dismissed at the request of United States District Attorney Morrison. Governor Anaya's many Nogales friends are always pleased to welcome him to this city.

Professor E. M. Bind, the well known successful mine and oil expert of Los Angeles, accompanied by H. E. Grace and a number of capitalists, arrived in the city yesterday from the City of Angeles, and this morning departed for Sinaloa, Mexico, where Professor Bind will examine and report on lands said to contain oil. Mr. Grace is well known in Nogales where he resided a number of years before removing to Los Angeles, where he and his family now make their home.

At the regular monthly meeting of the board of supervisors held last Monday and Tuesday, the Oasis Printing House was awarded the county printing and publishing for the ensuing year. THE BORDER VIDETTE did not bid for the work.

Charlie Thompson, for a long time chief clerk in the local railway office, has returned from Naco, Arizona, where he has been acting as agent of that station during the absence of Tom Paschal, the popular agent, who has been enjoying a vacation for the first time in many years. Tom spent most of the time with his relatives and friends in the east. Mr. Thompson's numerous friends and acquaintances are pleased to see him home; Mr. Paschal was tendered a royal welcome upon his return to Naco several days ago.

T. J. Watson, the Los Angeles mining man, who recently bonded the Austerlitz mine in the Oro Blanco mining district, this county from Dr. A. H. Noon and sons of this city, is arranging to actively operate the splendid old producer. Mr. Watson expects to have the mill going sometime next week. Woodward & Layne were the last people to operate the Austerlitz which is one of the best properties in southern Arizona. It is said that bad management caused them to lose control of the mine. We wish Mr. Watson good luck.

Messrs. Frank Reagan, "Buck" Lane and Mr. Cox, three prominent capitalists of Del Rio, Texas, have this week been visitors in the city on their way to Sonora where they are interested in rich placer gold diggings. This is Mr. Lane's first visit to this section and he expressed himself as delighted with our people and climate. Reagan and Cox have been here before and with the assistance of friends are showing their friend Lane everything worth seeing. Before returning to Texas, the gentlemen will visit their property in Sonora.

P. J. McCarty, of Canille, this county, was here Wednesday and Thursday of this week on private business, and incidentally looking after Wm. Roath's political fences. Will is a Democrat, through and through, and his friends are busy grooming him for the office of Supervisor from the Elgin and Canille country. Mr. Roath has as yet not said "Yes," but his friends throughout the county believe he would make a first-class county commissioner. THE BORDER VIDETTE is sure of it, and should he announce himself for the important office, we believe he could win in a walk.

The estate of the late Sabino Otero, a pioneer of Pima and Santa Cruz county, who recently died in Tucson, is said to be worth more than $300,000. The St. Joseph's Orphanage of Tucson, by Mr. Otero's will gets $5,000; Bishop Granjon of Tucson gets $500; valuable Tucson real estate and $10,000 in cash is given to a niece, Mrs. Ana Maria Coenen of Tucson; a number of pieces of real estate in Tucson, and $5000 in cash is willed to another niece, Mrs. Brigida Coenen. Each of these two beneficiaries are given a third interest in the old Otero land grant. A grand nephew, Alfonso Coenen, is given $5000, and another grand nephew, Eugene Coenen, is given the same amount. Manuel Otero, a young man, raised by Mr. Otero, given $2500. The balance of the great estate goes to Teofilo Otero, a brother, who is also executor, without bonds.

Con O'Keefe, ex-United States collector of customs, is back from Torres, Sonora where he has been during the past two weeks superintending the building of vats to be using in dipping cattle to be imported to the United States from districts south of the present quarantine line. The vats, according to Mr. O'Keefe, are large enough to permit the dipping of between three and four thousand cattle per day. It is understood that American buyers are now busy in the district from which the cattle to be dipped will be shipped and great herds are being rounded up for immediate shipment to the United States at the Port of Nogales. At Torres, Mr. O'Keefe says he had the pleasure of meeting John Symonds, the ever accommodating superintendent of the Ferrocarril Mexico de Union, to whom he is indebted for many courtesies. Mr. Symonds and his interesting family have resided at Torres many years. They are well known in Nogales.

Tom Cunningham, the well known English mining engineer, who is now in the employ of the La Cobia Mining Company, is here from the big copper camp near Noria, and reports everything there running fine. The following well known Nogales boys all whom are "making good," are working at La Cobia: O. O. Saxhang, Tom Gittins, Frank Sparks, C. T. Tonkin, Blake Sharpe and John E. Bentley. Each and every one of these boys is a pastmaster in his line of work and the La Cobia Mining Company is very fortunate in securing their services. Bob Mitchell of Cananea fame, is general manager of the mines and smelter.

As a result of President Wilson's proclamation lifting the embargo against the exportation of arms and ammunition into Mexico, the United States government patrol along the Mexican border was withdrawn last Wednesday afternoon, and the colored troops stationed here are now assembled at their general camp, where it is believed they will remain for the present. Early Wednesday forenoon Collector of Customs Hardy received official notice from Washington, announcing the raising of the embargo. The removal of the embargo caused great rejoicing among the constitutionalists stationed here, and at Hermosillo, where there was a great demonstration Wednesday and Wednesday night.

Colonel Chas. E. Hardy, collector of customs, is back from Washington, where he had been called to confer with the great White Father, President Wilson, and Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, regarding conditions in his district, and along the international border. While at the capital, Colonel Hardy says he was treated with every possible consideration by the heads of the various departments and the President. Colonel Hardy was the guest of Senators Smith and Ashurst and Congressman Hayden, while in Washington; he also visited Mount Vernon, the birthplace of Washington, and other points of interest at our beautiful capital city. During the collector's absence from his post, the business of his important office, was ably handled by Chief Deputy Collector Mason, who by-the-way, is one of the most thoroughly competent and reliable men in the customs service.

Resolutions Adopted.

At the regular business meeting of the Santa Cruz Club Auxiliary, held at the club rooms in the Lyric Theatre building Wednesday afternoon of the present week, a committee on resolutions presented the following report, which was adopted by a unanimous vote:

Nogales, Ariz., Feb. 3d, 1914.

WHEREAS, We greatly appreciate their kindness, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That we especially desire to thank

The Santa Cruz Club for tendering us the use of the club rooms during the entire week of the Convention; Mr. J. A. Harrison for his generous donation; the gentlemen who so kindly provided the Hawaiian orchestra; friends who loaned their automobiles; Mrs. Joseph E. Wise for her generous hospitality; Mr. Charles F. Moody, who constructed the tables for the club luncheon, donating his services; and to others who helped to make the occasion a success.

RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be published in both the newspapers.

MRS. A. A. DOHERTY,
A. L. GUSTETTER,
THERON RICHARDSON,
Committee.

Stockholders Meeting.

To the Stockholders of the African Land and Irrigation Company.
